

NextGenEU

THE GAME-CHANGER FOR EUROPE

Hosted by OMFIF with the participation of the European Commission

Tuesday 19 July 2022, Shangri-La, Singapore

NextGenEU – The game-changer for Europe

Overview

WITH globalisation under pressure and new challenges threatening the investment opportunities, the open economies of Europe and Asia Pacific can work together to ensure future mutual prosperity. At the heart of the European Union's far-reaching economic plan is NextGenEU, a borrowing programme which could transform how leading Asian investors and business leaders consider their relationship with Europe.

Organised by OMFIF with the participation of the European Commission, the event includes contributions from the most senior officials from its budget and economic analysis divisions. It also features central bank and ministry of finance leaders from across Southeast Asia, some of the region's most influential investors and representatives from the world's top banks.

08.50 – 09.00 WELCOME REMARKS

David Marsh, Chairman, OMFIF

Prakash Kannan, Managing Director, Chief Economist and Head of Total Portfolio Management, GIC

With globalisation under pressure and a new set of economic challenges threatening the world's economies, how can major economic blocs work together to steer a path to a more prosperous future?

09:00 – 09:20 KEYNOTE ADDRESS 1

Why the European Union is open for business and how Asia can benefit

Johannes Hahn, Commissioner for Budget and Administration, European Commission

With the advent of the €800bn NextGenEU programme, Europe is investing heavily in its own future. The Commission's budget chief details how Asian corporates and investors can take part in and benefit from the investment drive.

09:20–09:40 KEYNOTE ADDRESS 2

Europe today and tomorrow – a brighter economic future

Declan Costello, Deputy Director-General for Economic and Financial Affairs, European Commission

The EU's policy response to the Covid-19 pandemic was unprecedented and impressive. It has set the region on the road to robustly withstand economic challenges and position its economy for a new era of sustainable growth.

MEETING PROGRAMME

09:40–10:40

SESSION 1

Europe, Asia and understanding the new global macro investment environment

Speakers:

Declan Costello, Deputy Director-General for Economic and Financial Affairs, European Commission

Prakash Kannan, Managing Director, Chief Economist and Head of Total Portfolio Management, GIC

Neeraj Seth, Head of Asia Fixed Income, BlackRock

Will Goodwin, Head of Direct Investments, New Zealand Superannuation Fund

Moderator: John Orchard, CEO, OMFIF

With investors facing a generational change in the global investment environment, how will leading Asian investors from the public and private sectors adapt their portfolios? How do they view Europe as an investment destination and how is it included in their allocation plans?

10:40–11:00

REFRESHMENT BREAK

11:00–11:30

IN CONVERSATION

Why NextGenEU is a game-changer for the global capital markets

Gert Jan Koopman, Director-General for Budget, European Commission

David Marsh, Chairman, OMFIF

11:30–11:40

PRESENTATION

How Asia's most influential investors compare to their global peers

Clive Horwood, Deputy CEO and Managing Editor, OMFIF

Exclusive results of OMFIF's survey of central bank reserves managers' investment approaches, revealing how they plan to invest in both Europe and Asia.

CONTINUES...

MEETING PROGRAMME

11:40–12:30

SESSION 2

The new global reserve asset? How investors have reacted to the advent of NextGenEU

Speakers:

Siegfried Ruhl, Hors Classe Adviser in the Directorate-General for Budget, European Commission

Alisara Mahasandana, Assistant Governor, Financial Markets Operations Group, Bank of Thailand

Christopher Chan, Chief Investment Officer, Public Markets, Hong Kong Monetary Authority

Ioannis Rallis, Head of SSA DCM, JP Morgan

Laura O'Connor, Managing Director Fixed Income Origination & Syndication, TD Securities

Moderator: Clive Horwood, Deputy CEO and Managing Editor, OMFIF

Asia's central bank reserves managers and other leading investors have traditionally held lower levels of European reserves assets than many of their global peers. Will the advent of NGEU bonds encourage them to diversify their holdings, given the new levels of safety and liquidity the securities provide?

12:30–13:40

LUNCH BREAK

13:40–14:30

SESSION 3

Transforming sustainable finance – a new era of products and liquidity

Speakers:

Gert Jan Koopman, Director-General for Budget, European Commission

Franziska Zimmermann, Director, Sustainability and Climate Change Strategy, Temasek

Wolfgang Klemm, Head of Strategy and Development, Sevia Holdings

Moderator: Mark Burgess, Chairman of the Investment Committee and Board Member, HESTA; Chairman, OMFIF Asia

NGEU is issuing a third of its bonds in the green format, taking them mainstream in the sovereign, supranational and agency bond space. What are the opportunities and risks for investors in the increasingly liquid sustainable finance arena? And how does the EU's green taxonomy compare to those in other leading blocs?

MEETING PROGRAMME

14:30–15:30

SESSION 4

Building the financial and economic relationship between Europe and Asia

Speakers:

Johannes Hahn, Commissioner for Budget and Administration, European Commission
